

---

APRIL 2016 NEWSLETTER

---

Message from founder Connor Jacob Archer

It is my pleasure, to introduce our April 2016 newsletter. The Courageous Steps Project has had a lot this month, including a 'One Word' Challenge with Orono Middle School, and behind scenes work with the 3rd annual Courageous Steps Walk-Run event coming up this Spring. April was indeed a busy month, and I hope you enjoy the Courageous Steps Project's April 2016 newsletter.

3rd annual Courageous Steps Walk-Run proving success before actual event.

This year's walk-run has been more exciting to plan than any other walk-run planned before. All of this has to do with the 51 sponsors, and several silent auction contributors that have contributed to this year's walk-run event so far. It is also made possible by the many donations that have been sent in for the fundraiser. Next comes finding teams & individuals to register for the walk-run on Sunday May 22nd. Please visit the walk-run page under the website for more information.

Questions? Comments?

Like our newsletter? Have any suggestions? Please contact Connor Archer at: connor.archer@thecourageousstepsproject.org. We are always open to improving our newsletters.

Orono Middle School 'One Word' Challenge released

Orono Middle School recently finished a 'One Word' Challenge given by founder Connor Archer. The school is the fourth school to accept this challenge. They are also the first middle school to accept the challenge.

Scholarship Fund Awards Presentation on June 9th

The Courageous Steps Project Scholarship Fund will be awarding two more scholarships to graduating seniors at Old Town High School on Thursday June 9th at 7pm.

Courageous Steps Project founder heads to Washington D.C.

Founder Connor Archer has made his own footprint in the State of Maine, with the Courageous Steps Project. I visited Washington D.C. to attend the Prudential Spirit of Community Awards, where I expanded the project into a whole new territory.