

Press Release 2-18-18

Looking to get out and enjoy some basketball in March? You are in luck!

The Courageous Steps Project will be hosting it's 2nd annual Unified Basketball Fun-Day presented by Milligan's Landing & Embroidery on Friday March 9th & Saturday March 10th at Orono High School's Gymnasium.

Admission is FREE for senior citizens, $3.00 for students, $5.00 for adults, and $8.00 for families. Admission is only for each day. We ONLY accept cash or check with admissions!

Unified Basketball teams from Brewer High School, Ellsworth High School, Old Town High School and Orono High School will play on Friday night from 4:00pm-8:00pm, while the rest of the 6 teams will play on Saturday from 10:00am-4:00pm A full schedule can be found on our Unified Basketball Fun-Day webpage: <https://www.thecourageousstepsproject.org/unified-basketball-fun-day.html>.

The Orono High School Boosters Club will be providing concessions. The Courageous Steps Project will be selling t-shirts and other product line items, and will be holding a raffle as well with several gift cards/certificates to choose from.

NOTE: Concessions will ONLY take cash. Our Product Sales & Raffle will take cash, check, and credit/debit cards. If you have any questions on this, see one of our event volunteers.

All proceeds from this event will go to support The Courageous Steps Project's initiatives, including the Unified Basketball programs that participated in the event.

We would like to once again thank our champion sponsor Milligan's Landing & Embroidery along with our other sponsors which include: First National Bank, Katahdin Trust Company, EMMC Sports Medicine, Van Syckle Kia, Spectrum Healthcare Partners, Dairy Queen, and Bangor Savings Bank!

If you have any questions, please contact the executive director and tournament director, Connor Archer, at: connor.archer@thecourageousstepsproject.org. You can also visit our website at: www.thecourageousstepsproject.org.

207-827-5193

Presented By

The Courageous Steps Project is a 501©3 non-profit organization that strives to help children and young adults with developmental challenges in Eastern Maine. Your monetary contributions are tax-deductible through the IRS to the extent allowed by law! If you have any questions regarding this, please contact: info@thecourageousstepsproject.org.